CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE A.R.F.O.R.A.

Association of the Romanian Orthodox Ladies Auxiliaries of North America

PREAMBLE

In almost all Romanian Orthodox parishes in the United States and Canada, ladies auxiliaries were organized at the same time as the parishes. They gave a generous and unselfish contribution to the life of the Church.

The first attempt to organize the local auxiliaries in an international organization was made at the Episcopate Congress held in Chicago in 1934, when the Society of Orthodox Romanian Auxiliaries (S.O.R.A.) was established.

In 1938, His Grace, Bishop POLICARP, reactivated that organization under the name of A.R.F.O.R.A., the Association of Orthodox Ladies Auxiliaries of North America. At that time, the first provisional By-Laws were adopted.

The By-Laws were reprinted in 1956, 1971 and 1988 with revisions in 1992, 1993, 1994, and 1997. This latest revision was adopted at a Legislative Meeting held in June, 2014 at Vatra Romaneasca, Grass Lake, Michigan.

The Church Congress, held in Cleveland, Ohio, in September 2015, approved the By-Laws as presented in this booklet.
